Such application should include:
(1) The name, address, telephone and email address of the owner(s) of record of the dwelling unit for which a certificate is sought. If such owner is not a natural person, the application shall identify all partners, officers and/or directors of any such entity, including personal contact information;

The city manager or his or her designee shall have the authority to obtain additional information from the applicant as necessary to achieve the objectives of this chapter.

(b) Attached to and concurrent with submission of the application described in this section, the owner shall provide:

Sec. 8-10014. - Short-term vacation rental agent.
(a) The owner of a short-term vacation rental shall designate a short-term vacation rental agent on its application for a short-term vacation rental certificate. A property owner may serve as the short-term vacation rental agent. Alternatively, the owner may designate a natural person as his or her agent who is over age 18.

(b) The duties of the short-term vacation rental agent are to:
   (1) Be reasonably available to handle any problems arising from use of the short-term vacation rental unit;
   (2) Appear on the premises of any short-term vacation rental unit within two hours following notification from the city of issues related to the use or occupancy of the premises. This includes, but is not limited to, notification that occupants of the short-term vacation rental unit have created unreasonable noise or disturbances, engaged in disorderly conduct or committed violations of the City of Savannah Code of Ordinances or other applicable law pertaining to noise, disorderly conduct, overcrowding, consumption of alcohol or use of illegal drugs. Failure of the agent to timely appear to two or more complaints regarding violations may be grounds for penalties as set forth in this chapter. This is not intended to impose a duty to act as a peace officer or otherwise require the agent to place himself or herself in a perilous situation;
   (3) Receive and accept service of any notice of violation related to the use or occupancy of the premises; and
   (4) Monitor the short-term vacation rental unit for compliance with this chapter.
An owner may change his or her designation of a short-term vacation rental agent temporarily or permanently; however there shall only be one such agent for a property at any given time. To change the designated agent, the owner shall notify the tourism management and ambassadorship director in writing of the new agent's identity, together with all information regarding such person as required by the applicable provisions of section 8-10013.

(Ord. of 11-10-2014(2))

Sec. 8-10015. - Grant or denial of application.
Review of an application shall be conducted in accordance with due process principles and shall be granted unless the applicant fails to meet the conditions and requirements of this chapter, or otherwise fails to demonstrate the ability to comply with local, state or federal law. Any false statements or information provided in the application are grounds for revocation, suspension and/or imposition of penalties, including denial of future applications.

(Ord. of 11-10-2014(2))

(a) A legible copy of the short-term vacation rental unit certificate shall be posted within the unit and include all of the following information:

(Ord. of 11-10-2014(2))

Sec. 8-10017. - Short-term vacation regulation procedure.
(a) To ensure the continued application of the intent and purpose of this chapter, the tourism management and ambassadorship director of the city shall notify the owner of a short-term vacation rental unit of all instances in which nuisance behavior of the rental guest or the conduct of his or her short-term vacation rental unit agent results in a citation for a code violation or other legal infraction.

(b) The tourism management and ambassadorship director shall maintain in each short-term vacation rental location file a record of all code violation charges, founded accusations and convictions occurring at or relating to a short-term vacation rental unit. When a property owner has accumulated three code violations for a particular property within a period of 12 consecutive months, the city shall revoke any pending certificates and reject all applications for the subject premises for a period of 12 consecutive months.

(c) If a short-term vacation rental unit owner has been cited and found to be in violation of any zoning, building, health or life safety code provision, the owner must demonstrate compliance with the applicable code prior to being eligible to receive a short-term vacation rental certificate.

(d) Citations for code violations and any other violation of the city code may be heard by a short-term vacation rental staff board or the recorder's court of Chatham County. The staff board shall be comprised of full-time city employees as appointed by the city manager or his/her designee and shall include at least one staff member selected from revenue, zoning, tourism and the Savannah-Chatham Metropolitan Police Department. The staff board will receive evidence; however, the official rules of evidence will not govern the proceeding. The staff board will issue a written finding as to each alleged infraction, specifically identifying each founded accusation, which shall constitute a violation.

(e) Violations of this chapter are subject to the following fines, which may not be waived or reduced and which may be combined with any other legal remedy available to the City:

(1) First violation: $500.00.
(2) Second violation within the preceding 12 months: $750.00.
(3) Third violation within the preceding 12 months: $1,000.00.
(f) A person aggrieved by the city's decision to revoke, suspend or deny a short-term vacation rental certificate may appeal the decision to the city manager. The appeal must be filed with the city manager's office in writing, within 30 calendar days after the adverse action and it shall contain a concise statement of the reasons for the appeal. Timely filing of an appeal shall stay the revocation, suspension or denial pending a decision by the city manager.

(g) The city manager or appointed designee shall consider the appeal within 30 days after receipt by the city manager of a request unless otherwise agreed in writing by the city and aggrieved party. All interested parties shall have the right to be represented by counsel, to present testimony and evidence, and to cross-examine witnesses. The city manager shall render a determination, which will constitute a final ruling on the application.

(h) Nothing in this section shall limit the city from enforcement of its code, state or federal law by any other legal remedy available to the city. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit or supplant the power of any city inspector, deputy marshal or other duly empowered officer under the city's ordinances, rules and regulations and the authority granted under state law, as amended, to take necessary action, consistent with the law, to protect the public from property which constitutes a public nuisance or to abate a nuisance by any other lawful means of proceedings.

(Ord. of 11-10-2014(2))

Sec. 8-10018. Taxes.

Short-term vacation rental unit owners are subject to state sales tax, city taxes, including but not limited to the hotel/motel tax, and are liable for payment thereof as established by state law and the city code. The city may seek to enforce payment of all applicable taxes to the extent provided by law, including injunctive relief.
