

Resources for Researching World War I Soldiers

The following resources were utilized by the City of Savannah, Municipal Records & Archives division during the Chatham County World War I Fallen Documentation Project, the aim of which was to document all those listed on the Chatham County World War I Honor Roll. This list is provided as an aid to those who are embarking on their own research of a World War I service member. It does not attempt to be all-inclusive, and there may be additional resources locally, nationally, and online available to assist you in your search.

Soldiers of the Great War, by Haulsee, W. M. (William Mitchell), Howe, F. G. (Frank George), Doyle, A. C. (Alfred Cyril). Washington, D.C.: Soldiers record publishing association, 1920.
