Savannah Development and Renewal Authority (SDRA)

Organizational History:

The Savannah Development and Renewal Authority (SDRA) is an independent public development authority that was founded in 1992 by the Georgia General Assembly. They work with the City of Savannah and private businesses to refurbish and restore downtown Savannah, Georgia as well as improve infrastructure and utilities in the same area. Corridors that have benefited from SDRA include Martin Luther King, Jr. Boulevard, Montgomery Street, and Broughton Street.

For more information on SDRA see:

<http://sdra.net/> (Last accessed February 14, 2019)

Scope & Content:

The Savannah Development and Renewal Authority photograph collection contains photographs, slides, and negatives of various locations and buildings in downtown Savannah including squares, streets, historic monuments, and sculptures. Images include blighted areas targeted for improvement, as well as personal and event photographs related to SDRA personnel and activities. Photographs of locations outside of Savannah such as Americus, Georgia; Berkeley, California; Alexandria, Virginia; Greenville, South Carolina; and various locations in Rhode Island and South Carolina, are also included. The collection includes one folder of research materials on the history of Broughton Street.

System of Arrangement & Ordering:

The Savannah Development and Renewal Authority photograph collection is arranged by format. The photographs and negatives (Sub-series 3602-004.1) are arranged alphabetically by the subject and/or location. The slides (Sub-series 3602-004.2) are arranged in the order that they were received and have been minimally processed. See attached inventory.

materials. Researchers are responsible for obtaining any necessary permission to publish from the holder of copyright. In the event that the Municipal Archives becomes a source for publication, a copy of the publication is requested for the Municipal Archives.

NOTICE: WARNING CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve a violation of copyright law.
