"Things We Like to Hear"

Savannah, Georgia,
Saturday Evening.

Mr. Ernest Morrison,
Lucas Theatre,
City.

Dear Mr. Morrison:

As a regular patron of the Lucas Theatre, allow me, please, to congratulate you upon securing such a splendid company of actors and actresses.

I have seen every play put on by the Lucas Players and can truthfully say that they get better and better.
WITHIN THE LAW, A WIDOW BY PROXY, THE BROKEN WING, and SINNERS, were all wonderful, and all the others were very good also.

Am going to ask a few questions to be answered, I hope, in the "Question Box".

Where was Miss Walthers playing last before coming to Savannah?

Is Miss Robinson or Mr. Burroughs, either of them, married?

Did Mr. Burroughs and Miss Neff play together before coming here?

Most sincerely yours,

MISS C. B.

P.S.—Three cheers for Dann Malloy and then some;— pardon the slang but he has "got 'em."

Note:—The questions in the letter above are answered in the "Question Box" column on page 25.

JOHN J. WYNN

A NEW LEADING MAN!

He is not an actor on the theatrical stage, but is one of the thousands of "above-the-average" American citizens who, until recently, had been doing his little part on the stage of life—working hard every day, spending all the money he made and knowing all the time that he should save a part of it. He didn't do it, though, because he had never learned to save systematically, until a friend told him about our new

Chatham Assured Savings Plan

He entered the plan—took the lead—and now steps out with the assurance, self-respect and confidence of a STAR. Read his own story, "I WISH YOU THE SAME." A copy is yours for the asking.

The Centennial Mill Company

This week we will devote a page to a product that is essentially Savannah-made. This product is one for which an increasing demand has been felt ever since the construction of the plant here. A manufacturing plant of this character is an acquisition for any city, for it means that a home-made product is being distributed throughout the entire country, and thus acquainting the city with the people of the nation. Accordingly, we are glad to introduce:

Hi-Bisk Flour is produced by the Centennial Mill Company which operates the largest plant of its kind in the South, having a daily capacity of five thousand barrels of Plain and Self-Rising Flour, with storage facilities of one hundred thousand barrels. The plant is located at Indian and Water Streets, and through its accessibility to all railways and steamship lines, its product is quickly dispatched to all four corners of the globe.

The building itself is of brick and steel construction, and was built expressly for flour storage. It occupies a space of 287x190 feet, and is equipped with the most modern machinery for the production of flour. It is absolutely sanitary in every respect.

In addition to the above plant, the Centennial Mill Company operates plants at Memphis, Tenn., Tacoma, Spokane, Wash., and Portland, Oregon. The industry is of prime importance and its value to Savannah is exceedingly great. We thank you.

? QUESTION BOX ?

Dear Miss C. B.

It certainly is good to get a nice letter such as yours written Saturday evening. We are all very much gratified at the nice things you say.

Miss Walthers was in stock up in Wilkesbarre, Pa.

Neither Miss Robinson or Mr. Burroughs are married.

Mr. Burroughs and Miss Neff have played together in Detroit, Mich.

Q—Mr. Franklin played his part in your last week's production, Sinners, very well indeed. I like him very much. Will you please tell him this for me and oblige? Mrs. Coy

A—Mr. Franklin was much pleased at your compliment and hopes his efforts will be further appreciated.

Q—Is it true that Don Burroughs and Helen Neff are engaged? A.L.G.

A—No, they are not engaged, so you still have a chance, but—get busy quick.

Q—How can I obtain a photograph from each actor and actress in your company? Birdie.

A—Later in the season there will be a certain Photo contest which will allow you to get the pictures you want.

Q—Is Mr. Howard Ricker married? Curious.

A—Yes, Mr. Ricker is married, but those scars are the result of two years in France.

Q—Won't you ask Mr. Austin, your very capable organist, to give us one or two of his fine classic selections during the acts? Am sure it would be appreciated by more than one.

Music Lover.

A—It will afford the management pleasure to do this. Advise us what performance you will attend.

ENTHUSIASM

ENTHUSIASM is the dynamics of your personality. Without it, whatever abilities you may have lie dormant. You may possess knowledge, sound judgment, good reasoning faculties, but no one will know it until you discover how to put your heart into thought and action. A wonderful thing is this quality which we call enthusiasm. If you would like to be a power among men, cultivate enthusiasm. People will like you better for it; you will escape the dull routine of a mechanical existence and you will make headway wherever you are.
