Westley Wallace Law (W. W. Law)

Biographical History:

W. W. Law (1923-2002) was a prominent Civil Rights leader, local historian, historic preservationist and community leader in Savannah, Georgia. Westley Wallace Law was born on January 1, 1923 in Savannah, Georgia, the oldest of three children of Geneva Wallace and Westley Law. He had two younger sisters, Dorothy Law, 1924-1975, and Tessie (Tessye) Law Sanders (1927- ). Law was greatly influenced by his mother, Geneva W. Law, grandmother, Lillie Belle Wallace, mentor, Reverend Ralph Mark Gilbert, and scoutmaster, John S. Delaware. Both Reverend Gilbert and John Delaware were officials in the Savannah chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP). Law joined the NAACP Youth Council in high school and later served as its president. He attended Georgia State Industrial College (now Savannah State University) before being drafted into the U. S. Army during World War II. After he completed his military service, he finished his bachelor's degree in biology. Law was a long-time boy scoutmaster for Troop 49 which was made up of boys from First Bryan Baptist Church, of which he was a member and Sunday school teacher. He was a mail carrier for the United States Postal Service for over forty years.

From 1950-1976 Law served as President of the Savannah chapter of the NAACP. During the 1960s, he led weekly mass meetings at Bolton Street Baptist Church and St. Philip A.M.E. Church during which he urged "passive resistance to segregation" and nonviolent protests. He was involved in efforts to desegregate Grayson Municipal Stadium, department store lunch counters on Broughton Street, and the beaches at Tybee Island. He led an eighteen-month boycott of Broughton Street merchants. Law is largely credited for helping to keep Savannah's Civil Rights movement more peaceful than those in other southern cities. In 1961, he was fired from his postal job because of his Civil Rights activities, but reinstated after national NAACP leaders and President John F. Kennedy came to his defense.

After finishing his run as NAACP president, he focused his efforts on preserving Savannah African American History. He established the Savannah-Yamacraw Branch of the Association for the Study of Afro-American Life and History (ASALH), the King-Tisdell Cottage Museum, Beach Institute African American Cultural Center, the Ralph Mark Gilbert Civil Rights Museum, and the Negro Heritage Trail Tour. He also helped bring attention to and preserve Laurel Grove South Cemetery, the City's historically African American municipal cemetery.

Law received honorary doctorates from the Savannah College of Art & Design and Savannah State University. He was honored by the National Trust for Historic Preservation and the Georgia Trust for Historic Preservation for his preservation efforts in the community. W. W. Law died on July 28, 2002 at his home in Savannah. He willed his home and belongings to

Scope & Content:

The W. W. Law personal papers (1902, 1913-2005, no date) is comprised of records that span Law's life and represent his interests, accomplishments, commitments, and personal responsibilities. A significant portion of this collection is correspondence, including general correspondence, greeting cards, and postcards from Law's friends and family. Other papers represent Law's community affiliations with organizations like the Boy Scouts of America, Young Men's Christian Association (YMCA), Georgia Heritage Trust Commission, Historic Savannah Foundation, and the American Legion. The collection also includes student, employee, financial, legal, and medical papers. The collection highlights lifelong relationships between Law and many friends, for example Lewis Howard. Another highlight of the W. W. Law personal papers are the many creative documents Law produced over the years, including a song book for his Boy Scout troop and drawings for United States Army military base publications.

Record Series 1121-112, W. W. Law personal papers

Sub-series #: 1121-112.2
Name: W. W. Law personal papers – Civic Involvement papers
Dates: 1921, 1933-2002, no date
Extent/Size: 7 records cartons, 1 oversized box, 1 oversized folder, 1 rolled item (8.45 cubic feet)

Scope and Content:

Sub-series 1121-112.2, W. W. Law personal papers – Civic Involvement papers (1921, 1933-2002, no date) includes records Law created or compiled while participating in various organizations, committees, commissions, and boards. Law either volunteered for general membership or as an officer, or was elected to a position of leadership by the organization. Law was involved with organizations related to historic preservation, music, politics, society, youth involvement, school alumni relations and workers' rights. The most extensive records are from Law's youth, regarding his involvement in the Boy Scouts of America and the Young Men's Christian Association (YMCA), in which Law was both a member and leader. Records of note in this sub-series are the extensive correspondence from Law's presidency of the YMCA's Southwide Young Men's Annual Assembly from 1946-1948, including a letter from Law with an attached report on the YMCA West Broad Street branch constitution, August 6, 1946.

System of Arrangement and Ordering:

Sub-series 1121-112.2, W. W. Law personal papers – Civic Involvement papers (1921, 1933-2002, no date) is arranged alphabetically by organization.

Sub-series #: 1121-112.3
Name: W. W. Law personal papers – Personal Interests papers
Dates: 1902, 1913-2002, no date
Extent/Size: 7 records cartons, 1 oversized box (7.5 cubic feet)

Scope and Content:

Sub-series 1121-112.3, W. W. Law Personal papers – Personal Interests papers (1902, 1913-2002, no date) includes materials on various subjects that Law was interested in or involved with during his life. The papers include programs for funerals, graduations, dedications, anniversaries, family reunions, lectures, and church Sunday services. Law was a featured speaker or participant in majority of these programs. Law’s notes can be found on several programs, commenting on songs, speeches, or presenters. Other types of records in this sub-series include: invitations; Law’s handwritten notes regarding quotes, music albums, books, and poems; and flyers, brochures, and articles authored by Law. There are numerous historically significant items in this sub-series including: a program from the dedicatory services of the Sidney A. Jones funeral home, October 10, 1965; a poster for a Marian Anderson concert at the Savannah Municipal Auditorium from January 26, 1927; as well as a program from a Marian Anderson concert held at the Savannah Municipal Auditorium, October 30, 1943.

System of Arrangement and Ordering:

Sub-series 1121-112.3, W. W. Law Personal papers – Personal Interests papers (1902, 1913-2002, no date) is arranged alphabetically by subject.

Scope and Content:

Sub-series 1121-112.4, W. W. Law personal papers – Administrative, Student, and related papers (1936, 1941-2005, no date) contains various records that were the result of Law's day-to-day tasks whether as an employee, student, or consumer. Law created records as a student at Beach High School, Class of 1942 and Savannah State University (Georgia State Industrial College), Class of 1948. Law was an employee of the United States Military and the United States Post Office, records from these institutions include health benefit plans, pay statements, and training documents. Also in this sub-series are assorted documents that include, contacts, business cards, notes, appliance warranties, grocery lists, envelopes, and phone messages. The financial records include Law's subscriptions to magazines, book clubs, music clubs, and newspapers, utility house bills, bank loans, and financial papers from Law's estate, carried out by Remer Pendergraph. Records of note in this sub-series include drawings by Law for publications at his post in the United States Military during World War Two and Law's school notebooks that are an accumulation of notes from school and his activities as a youth involved in the NAACP youth council and the YMCA.

System of Arrangement and Ordering:

Sub-series 1121-112.4, W. W. Law personal papers – Administrative, Student, and related papers (1936, 1941-2005, no date) is arranged in the following groupings, and then by record type and by business, school, or organization.

- Administrative papers
