Understanding Your Benefits

Total Disability	Due to an injury or illness, you are unable to perform each of the main duties of your regular occupation.
Partial Disability	Due to an injury or illness, you are unable to perform one or more of the main duties of your regular occupation on a full-time basis. Partial Disability benefits may be payable if you are earning at least 20% of the income you earned prior to becoming disabled, but not more than 99%. Partial disability benefits allow you to work and earn income from your employer as well as continue to receive benefits, which may enable you to receive 100% of your income during your time of disability.
Continuation of Disability	If you return to work full-time but become disabled from the same disability within 2 weeks of returning to work, you will begin receiving benefits again immediately.
Pre-Existing Condition	Any sickness or injury for which you have received medical treatment, consultation, care, or services (including diagnostic measures or the taking of prescribed medications) during the specified months prior to your coverage effective date. A disability arising from any such sickness or injury will be covered only if it begins after you have performed your regular occupation on a full-time basis for the specified months following the coverage effective date.
Benefit Exclusions	You will not receive benefits in the following circumstances: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Your disability is the result of a self-inflicted injury.</li><li>• You are not under the regular care of a doctor when requesting disability benefits.</li><li>• Your disability is the result of war, declared or undeclared, or any act of war.</li><li>• Your disability is covered under a worker's compensation plan and/or is due to a job-related sickness or injury.</li></ul>
Rehabilitation Assistance Benefit	Employees who participate in an approved rehabilitation program are eligible to receive an additional percent of benefit. Additionally, approved program costs may be reimbursed.
Survivor Income	A benefit may be paid to your survivor for additional months if you should die while you were eligible to receive benefits under this policy.
Coverage Termination	This coverage will terminate when you terminate employment with this policyholder, or at your retirement.
