Savannah Development and Renewal Authority (SDRA)

Organizational History:

The Savannah Development and Renewal Authority (SDRA) is an independent public development authority that was founded in 1992 by the Georgia General Assembly. They work with the City of Savannah and private businesses to refurbish and restore downtown Savannah, Georgia, as well as improve infrastructure and utilities in the same area. Corridors that have benefited from SDRA include Martin Luther King, Jr. Boulevard, Montgomery Street, and Broughton Street.

For more information on SDRA see: <http://sdra.net/> (last accessed February 14, 2019)

Conditions Governing Access:

This collection is stored off-site. Two (2) business days are required to service requests. All retrieval requests must be submitted a minimum of two business days in advance of a scheduled research appointment to access this collection.

Conditions Governing Reproduction and Use:

Please read carefully the statement on copyright below. Permission to reproduce does not constitute permission to publish. Researchers who plan publication are asked to discuss this with the archivist first for written permission. While most of the City of Savannah Municipal Archives collections are public records and in the public domain, not all are, and the Municipal Archives may not be the owner of copyright for all its archival materials. Researchers are responsible for obtaining any necessary permission to publish from the holder of copyright. In the event that the Municipal Archives becomes a source for publication, a copy of the publication is requested for the Municipal Archives.

NOTICE: WARNING CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of “fair use,” that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve a violation of copyright law.
