Sunday Feb 9th 1908.

This is a very nice railroad depot (station).
 very pretty inside with a fountain in the center with palms all around it. Savannah is a very pretty city for its size & very busy one. She

A large portion of Florida trains from northern and eastern points are routed via Savannah, the finest passenger train service the country has to offer being afforded by the several trunk lines. All passenger vessels are met by sightseeing buses at the docks and two trips over Savannah and its environs are available every day to visitors.

Monday in Savannah
 After the excitement let up a bit I am going to write you a letter. Pleasant weather here gives me a lot of time to get out and see things. I have nice rides about every day and seeing a lot of old Georgia. Hope you are feeling good but I know you have all the snow you want.
 I am going to stay right here for a while. Remember me to Kitty and Mrs W. Wish you were all here to get the Rem shine and wipe your brows.
 Good luck - C.F.

is grand to see and talk to him again. Glad to hear you are doing so nicely. Love to all. Edith
