SAVANNAH, GEORGIA. BULL STREET
NORTH FROM OGLETHORPE AVENUE. Savannah next to Atlanta the chief city and commercial metropolis of Georgia, is situated on the south bank of the Savannah River, eighteen miles from its mouth. The site was selected by General Oglethorpe, the founder of the city, in 1733. It is famous for its broad well-paved and magnificently shaded streets. The favorite promenade is Bull Street, to Forsyth Park.

Savannah, the "Birthplace of Georgia" was founded by Gen. James Oglethorpe Feb. 12, 1733. In Savannah is the oldest Protestant church in Georgia; the oldest orphanage in the United States; the oldest theatre in the United States in active use; the oldest brick house in the State, and in Savannah was established the first golf course in America. From Savannah sailed the "Savannah", the first steamship to cross the Atlantic ocean.

Savannah, the "Birthplace of Georgia" was founded by Gen. James Oglethorpe Feb. 12, 1733. In Savannah is the oldest Protestant church in Georgia; the oldest orphanage in the United States; the oldest theatre in the United States in active use; the oldest brick house in the State, and in Savannah was established the first golf course in America. From Savannah sailed the "Savannah", the first steamship to cross the Atlantic ocean.

BULL ST., LOOKING SOUTH FROM CITY HALL. Bull Street, the principal thoroughfare in Savannah, was named for Col. Wm. Bull, an Englishman who assisted in laying out the town. The street contains many public squares or parks, adorned with statues, fountains, gigantic oaks and magnolias. A view from the City Hall shows the picturesque Johnson Square.

Hi Hope all is well with you we need a little getting dug. Fruit trees are blooming but - not a word as last year. Last reports from all well - M

NORTH FROM OGLETHORPE AVENUE. Savannah next to Atlanta the chief city and commercial metropolis of Georgia, is situated on the south bank of the Savannah River, eighteen miles from its mouth. The site was selected by General Oglethorpe, the founder of the city, in 1733. It is famous for its broad well-paved and magnificently shaded streets. The favorite promenade is Bull Street, to Forsyth Park.

I was more learning Savannah today at 4:20 for Jacksonville Fla. It takes 4 hrs to get there. Harry did some good business here. Expect to do more in Jacksonville than in going to Palm Beach and Miami and start back roads. Hope you all are well
