HAND-COLORED
POST CARD

Andrew Low an Englishman owned and lived in this old Residence. From here ^{Franklin} ~~Franklin~~ wrote in 1855, "I write from the most comfortable quarters I have ever had in the United States." Here General Robert E. Lee paid his last visit to Savannah in 1870.

This is such an interesting place I wish I could spend more time here but we must be on our way this a.m. Yesterday we went to the Magnolia garden at Charlottsville, Va. & Spence. Spent a day with the Corvets - I played some golf with Mr. P. It has been very warm but rather rainy. Mr & Mrs P. asked to be remembered to you & Wellington - In haste Elsie
