MIDWAY CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

Erected 1792

Organized 1754 by descendants of an English Colony which came first to Mass. 1630, to Conn. 1635, to S. C. 1695, and to Ga. 1752.

Built on the same spot as the church which was burned by the British in 1778, this church has given to her country eighty-six ministers of the Gospel and seven foreign missionaries.

Midway, in St. John's Parish, now Liberty County, was the cradle of revolutionary spirit in Georgia and two of her sons were signers of the Declaration of Independence.
